Visa Processing and Validity

diplomatic passports Holders, services and Laissez-passer from regional and international organizations are subject to the usual visa application procedures for entry into the Algerian national territory. Exemption is subject to the existence of a visa waiver agreement for the holders of such travel documents.

Processing period must not exceed one (01) week.

Regarding visa validity, diplomatic and consular posts will issue visas according to the following procedures:

- For individual participants: Tourist visa, one (01) month single-entry, to cover only the event period (valid from August 15 to September 15);
  - For exhibitors: Business visa valid for three (03) months with multiple entries;
    - Employees of bank delegations required to travel to Algeria multiple times for work meetings: Business visa valid for six (06) months with multiple entries.

II – VISA ON ARRIVAL

For exceptional and duly justified cases, visas on arrival will be issued in coordination with the relevant authorities of the Ministry of Interior, Local government and regional planning (MICLAT).

Conditions for Issuance

Any foreigners arriving in the Algerian national territory must present themselves to the competent authorities at border control points with a valid travel document accompanied by a consular visa.

However, in emergency cases, the Border Police may issue – exceptionally – a regularization visa to foreigners who present themselves at border posts without a visa.

This measure concerns foreigners residing in countries where they don't have any Algerian diplomatic or consular representation.
